

Friday 23rd of January 2026

HOME NEWS FEATURES SPORTS BUSINESS OPINION EDITORIAL FASHION POLITICS CLASSIFIEDS ARCHIVES CC

NEWS

Rotary Club of Colombo Centennial hands over medicines to Air Force

Published 2 weeks ago on 2026/01/9

Rotary Club of Colombo Centennial officials with Air Force officers at the donation

The Rotary Club of Colombo Centennial, in collaboration with Rotary District 3220, handed over essential medicines to the Sri Lanka Air Force under Project Health Shield, in support of relief efforts for flood-affected communities across Sri Lanka.

Project Health Shield is a structured humanitarian initiative aimed at strengthening medical support during disaster situations. The medicines will be distributed by the Sri Lanka Air Force using its emergency response and logistical networks to ensure timely assistance to vulnerable communities impacted by recent floods.

The initiative highlights the commitment of the Rotary Club of Colombo Centennial and Rotary District 3220 to collaborative service during national emergencies, working alongside key national institutions to maximize reach and impact.

The handover was attended by Rtn. Shervon Fernandopulle (President), Rtn. Andrew Pangoda (Secretary), Rtn. Kishan Yahampath (Treasurer), Rtn. ACM Gagan Bulathsinghala (Club Learning Facilitator), Rtn. Crysantha Perera (Immediate Past President), Rtn. Gaindu Poorna (Public Image Chair), and Rtn. Ranjan Amarasinghe, representing the Rotary Club of Colombo Centennial.

LATEST

NEW:
Navy
BoatSPORTS
Guje overSPORTS
After
to bNEW:
PM |
EU, I
at WLATE
Trun
joinFORE
Vam
nom

Dr. Lalith Jayaweera, Director General of Health Services, together with his team of medical officers and staff, represented the Sri Lanka Air Force at the meeting.

Through Project Health Shield, Rotary continues to uphold its principle of Service Above Self, delivering compassionate and coordinated assistance to communities in need.

RELATED TOPICS:

- ◀ DON'T MISS
Landslide early warnings issued to the Districts of Badulla, Kandy, Matale and Nuwara Eliya
- UP NEXT
“Gift of Protection” from HNBA offering Rs. 1 Million free Life Cover to its customers affected by Cyclone Ditwah **▶

YOU MAY LIKE

CLICK TO COMMENT

NEWS

Navy divers restore sluice gate of Bomburuella Reservoir

Published 2 hours ago on 2026/01/23

The Sri Lanka Navy successfully conducted a diving operation on 19 Jan 26 to inspect and restore the sluice gate of the Bomburuella Reservoir.